Participants are requested to make their own arrangements for breakfast and dinner, as well as for lunches on the days before and after the meeting, as applicable.

Visas

All registered meeting participants requiring visas will be provided with personal invitation letters, as well as verbal notes to support their visa applications. Please note that it is absolutely necessary that you obtain your visa before travelling to the UK.

Participants are responsible for making arrangements for obtaining their visa for the UK if applicable. Information is available at:

<https://www.gov.uk/browse/visas-immigration/tourist-short-stay-visas>

For nationals of countries requiring visas, application of the visa must be made ahead of your departure as visas are not issued on arrival. Please apply for your visa as early as possible as processing times can be long.

The visa costs of funded participants will be covered.

Participants experiencing any difficulties with immigration or customs upon arrival in the UK should contact the meeting organisers (see contact information above).

On arrival at the airport

You are kindly requested to make your own arrangements for a shuttle to your hotel in Bristol. We recommend using either a taxi or the airport bus from the airport.

- The A1 airport bus runs between Bristol Temple Meads and Bristol Airport every 15 minutes.
- A taxi will cost roughly £20 and will take 15 minutes to the city centre.

If you are flying to one of the London airport terminals, you can get the Heathrow Express, the tube or taxi to London Paddington Train station. For more information, use the Transport for London website to plan your journey. <https://tfl.gov.uk>

Meeting language, documents and Wi-Fi

The meeting language will be English.

The documents for this meeting will be made available for download from the AEWA website:

<https://www.unep-aewa.org/en/meeting/15th-meeting-aewa-standing-committee>

Hard paper copies of the meeting documents will not be distributed before or during the meeting. However, free wireless internet will be available to all participants in the meeting room.

Wireless internet is available at all selected hotels and 4G is widely available.

Telephone use

It is possible to buy a local SIM card starter kit from kiosks at most airports, as well as at supermarkets. Make sure you take your charger and suitable adaptor as necessary. You may need your passport to register the SIM.

Please remember that with international calls you may incur roaming charges depending on your network provider.

Currency exchange

The currency in the UK is British Pound (£ /GBP).

We advise participants to bring sufficient cash and/or credit cards with them to cover their expenses for the duration of their stay. There are foreign exchange bureaux and ATM cash machines at Bristol Airport if cash is needed on arrival.

There are also ATM cash machines situated around Bristol – particularly in the city centre.

Banking hours for most banks are 09:00-17:00.

Credit Cards

Credit cards such as MasterCard and Visa, are widely accepted. For lost or stolen cards contact the following:

Visa International (0800 990 475)

MasterCard (0800 990 418)

Official language and local time

The official language is English. UK standard time is GMT.

Weather

The average weather in Bristol in December is cold with temperatures ranging from 4-10 °C. It can also be very wet so we advise to bring warm clothes, waterproof coats and shoes.

Electricity

In the United Kingdom the standard voltage is 230 V and the frequency is 50 Hz. You can use your electric appliances in the United Kingdom, if the standard voltage in your country is in between 220 - 240 V (as is in the UK, Europe, Australia and most of Asia and Africa) it is advisable to bring your own adaptor, if required, or purchase one at the airport upon arrival.

Plug sockets (see image).

Travel and health insurance

Participants are responsible for their own travel and health insurance. It is recommended that all participants take out comprehensive policies before arriving in the UK.
